

Customized Trips
Biblical Tour: Greece and Turkey

Plan a tour of major Christian sights with your religious group

Embarking on a biblical tour through Greece and Turkey with your church or religious group is an enriching experience that brings the ancient scriptures to life. TravelAvidly offers the perfect opportunity to customize this journey, ensuring that every step resonates deeply with your faith and community's interests.

Traveling through Greece and Turkey, you can trace the footsteps of the apostles and early Christians. Sites like Ephesus, Corinth, and Patmos provide a profound connection to the teachings and travels of Paul and John. With a customized tour, you can ensure that your itinerary includes all the pivotal locations mentioned in the New Testament, making the journey a deeply spiritual and educational experience. Your tour with TravelAvidly allows you to incorporate specific spiritual activities that resonate with your group. Whether it's holding a prayer service at the ancient ruins of Ephesus or conducting a Bible study session in Corinth, these personalized touches enhance the spiritual significance of your journey.

TravelAvidly provides knowledgeable guides who are not only experts in the historical and cultural aspects of Greece and Turkey but also have a deep understanding of biblical history. These guides can offer theological insights and contextual background, making the scriptures come alive in a way that is both informative and inspiring. In addition, traveling with your church or religious group provides invaluable opportunities for fellowship and bonding. By customizing your tour, you can include activities that foster community, such as group discussions, shared meals, and evening worship services. These shared experiences not only deepen your spiritual journey but also strengthen the relationships within your group.

Customizing a biblical tour through Greece and Turkey with TravelAvidly is an opportunity to deepen your faith, enhance your understanding of the scriptures, and build lasting bonds within your religious community. With tailored itineraries, expert guides, and spiritually enriching activities, TravelAvidly ensures that your journey is both meaningful and unforgettable. Embark on this sacred adventure and walk in the footsteps of the apostles, bringing the pages of the Bible to life in a profound and personal way.

Sights to Visit

Greece:

- Mars Hill (Areopagus): Visit the site where Apostle Paul delivered his sermon about the "Unknown God" (Acts 17:22-31).
- Ancient Agora of Athens: Explore the marketplace where Paul preached (Acts 17:17).
- Byzantine and Christian Museum: Discover the rich Christian history of Greece through artefacts and exhibits.
- Ancient Corinth Archaeological Site: Explore the ruins, including the Bema where Paul stood trial (Acts 18:12-17).
- Monasteries of Meteora: Visit some of the six active monasteries, such as the Holy Trinity Monastery and the Monastery of Great Meteoron, to explore their unique history and spiritual significance.
- Metropolitan Cathedral of Athens: Explore the main cathedral of the Greek Orthodox Church in Athens.

Turkey:

- Ephesus, one of the "Seven Churches of Revelation". Visit to St. John Basilica and the Last abode of Virgin Mary at Mount Solmissos. Visit to the old Greco-Roman city of Ephesus, most important of the "Seven Churches of Asia Minor", where St. John brought Mary in fulfillment of his pledge to Jesus to protect her
- The ancient city of Hierapolis home of Philip the Evangelist
- Philadelphia (Alasehir), the youngest of the "Seven Churches of Revelation," invites you to explore the enduring remains of an early church and the ancient city walls that still stand today.
- The ancient city of Hierapolis, known for its hot springs and significant Christian history.